

SUNDAY SCHOOL PROMOTES

631 at Christian Church Classes—An Increase Over Last Year.

The Sunday School rooms of the Christian Church were crowded Sunday with 631 girls and boys, for it was promotion day. Little girls with fluffy white dresses and pink and blue bows adorned the front seats. The beginners who had entered the first grade of an elementary school were promoted to the primary department of the Sunday School; those who had entered the fourth grade, to the junior department; those who had entered high school, to the intermediate department.

The program consisted of a song by the eighteen small beginners, a recitation by Stephen Simmons and a song by Isabel Brown of the primary department. Miss Anne Fleming, assistant pastor of the Christian Church and superintendent of the primary department, says the attendance Sunday was an increase over last year, and that prospects for a larger attendance are good.

Former M. U. Students to Wed.
